

THE DAILY BEE
Wednesday Morning, April 8,
LOCAL BREVITIES.

Now step up and settle the bets made on the election.
The east-bound train was thirty minutes late yesterday evening.
Yesterday was a beautiful day, clear, rather cool and breezy.

LOCAL CRIME

Burglars at Work--The Scherb Robbery Again--A Cutting Scrap.

It has been some time since the festive burglar strapped his kit upon his back and started out to work the town.
The police thinking that they had cleaned the town of this undesirable gentry, have been resting on their laurels. But the "burglar" has not yet resigned.

Yesterday morning the cigar store of Kaufman brothers on Fifteenth street was entered by thieves, and about $200 worth of watches, opera glasses, meerschaum goods, etc., were stolen.

The thieves effected an entrance by smashing open the front plate glass window, which, by the way, is three-eighths of an inch thick. They then probably reached through and broke open the show case containing the coveted valuables.

Another one. Kaney's meat market, on South Thirteenth street, was also operated upon Monday night. The thieves entered the shop by prying open a back door and passing through into the front room.

THE SCHERB ROBBERY. About two months ago, it will be remembered, a gentleman, F. J. Scherb by name, from Papillon, lost a pocket book in the postoffice, or had it stolen from him. For a long time the affair was involved in mystery, and there appeared to be no way of discovering the perpetrator of the robbery, for such it appeared to be.

SMOKE SEAL OF NORTH CAROLINA TOBACCO. The regular monthly meeting of the council last night was attended by acting Mayor Murphy (who came in and took the chair soon after the council came to order with Mr. Kaufman in the chair), and councilmen Anderson, Bechel, Behm, Haskell, Kaufman, Redfield and Thrane.

CITY COUNCIL.

Regular Meeting, Practical Business Quickly Done.

The regular monthly meeting of the council last night was attended by acting Mayor Murphy (who came in and took the chair soon after the council came to order with Mr. Kaufman in the chair), and councilmen Anderson, Bechel, Behm, Haskell, Kaufman, Redfield and Thrane.

An ordinance providing for the change of grading Tenth street from the north curb of Mason to the north curb of Pierce streets was taken up. In connection with it the waiver of damages by a number of citizens owning property in that vicinity was read and finally the ordinance was referred to the committee on streets and grades.

An ordinance authorizing the U. P. Railroad company to construct tracks on Leavenworth between Eleventh and Thirteenth streets, provided the public use of said street is not interfered with, and the city put to no expense either by litigation now or hereafter on account of said tracks, was passed.

An ordinance providing for the payment of city officers and others during March, 1885, was, after striking out an item in favor of Tim Collins and adding the salary of the city physician, passed. Redfield's resolution for the payment of a bill incurred in repairs of Mrs. Kelly's house by a carpenter was adopted.

So were reports of the finance committee made up several bills, and the report of the committee to continue into the next session, was adopted. The council adjourned to Thursday evening next, when the vote of the city will be counted.

Seal of North Carolina Tobacco is the best. Creighton College Exercises.

The regular monthly award of medals and other distinctions for proficiency in the various classes took place yesterday in the Creighton college hall before the faculty. The medals for excellence in the collective branches of the respective classes were carried off by John Toner, W. Doran, Ed. Faray, F. Faray, J. O'Neill, W. Smith and J. O'Donnell.

The following, who averaged 80 per cent or over, deserve to be honorably mentioned: T. Russell 98, G. Mercer 93, J. M. Carville, R. Shannon 92, H. Malone, T. Kelly, J. Ryan 88, B. Holve, W. Quinn 87, L. Conklin 86, J. Givins 85, F. McGinn, A. Miles, J. Whalen 84, C. Franzer, W. Morris, J. Powers 83, J. Faray 82, J. McKernan, R. Reed 81, W. Gardner, W. Moaghan 80.

After the reading of the pieces the vice president reminded them of the short time that remains till vacation begins, and expected them to make good use of the few weeks left; to preserve in their assiduous application, and advance in studies as rapidly as they have improved in deportment.

MORTUARY MATTERS.

The Death of Robert McAusland--Mrs. Hogan and Mrs. J. A. Worthen Dead.

News was received by friends yesterday morning of the death at Cherokee, Iowa, of Robert R. McAusland, of this city. He had been troubled with rheumatism for some time, and two weeks ago he left for Cherokee to seek relief, which, however, he did not find. He gradually failed until yesterday his death occurred.

The deceased was one of the best and most favorably known of Omaha's young population and was raised in this city, his father, Robert McAusland, having been one of its oldest settlers. Young McAusland entered the service of the Omaha National bank about 17 years ago and was promoted from time to time as his faithful and efficient services warranted, until the time of his death he occupied the responsible position of corresponding clerk.

Bob, as he was familiarly known among his friends was well liked and respected by all who had the honor of his acquaintance, for it was an honor to have his friendship, and his sad death will be a blow to many in this city. Deceased was 35 years of age and leaves a wife and three children. His remains will be brought home to this city when the notice of his funeral will be published.

REGAN. On Saturday last the wife of Lieutenant Regan, of the Ninth Infantry, died at Fort Russell, Cheyenne. This will be sad news to her many friends in Omaha, where Lieutenant Regan was stationed for some time.

WORTHEN. Telegrams received in this city on Sunday night conveyed the sad tidings of the death of Mrs. John A. Worthen in Denver, and of her infant, which was only a few hours old. Mrs. Worthen is remembered here by all of our old citizens as Eliza Huntington, the only daughter of Mrs. L. C. Huntington, and the mother and brothers who reside here, as well as the husband, will have the sympathies of many old residents in this sudden bereavement. The remains were brought to this city yesterday for burial.

GOBLE. The death of Mrs. M. H. Goble occurred at Las Vegas, N. M. at 12 o'clock Monday night. Mrs. Goble had been suffering some time with consumption and her death was looked for any time. She was an estimable lady, and leaves her husband Mr. M. H. Goble formerly of the Union Pacific, and two children. Her death will be mourned by a large circle of friends. The remains will be shipped to Omaha and the funeral will occur from St. Barnabas church next Tuesday, the 12th inst.

PERSONAL.

Hon. Church Howe came up from Auburn yesterday. Major Faray, well known in this city, arrived yesterday forenoon. G. W. E. Dorsey, congressman from the third Nebraska district, is in town, stopping at the Millard.

M. L. Zook, of Dundas & Zook, publishers of the Nebraska Republican, North Auburn, was in the city Monday. D. W. Van Cott, Esq., for a long time with Raymond, went to Rockford, Ill., yesterday, to accompany his wife home.

J. E. Moorman, traveling salesman of the Oskaloosa Tanning and Glove company, is in the city, quartered at the Metropolitan. Mr. Jos. P. Frenzer, of A. H. Huberman, left for Chicago to attend the opera festival. From there he will go to New Orleans to see the exposition.

Mrs. L. C. Zenl, one of St. Louis' fairest daughters and a prominent society lady of the Future Great, is in the city, visiting Mr. and Mrs. Lehmann on Saunders street.

C. J. Cotty, Madison; E. P. Savage, Sargent; Harry Dodd, Hastings; J. R. Gordon, Norfolk; T. C. Pook, Leavenworth; Kas. S. Waters, Madison; C. H. Harris, Berkeley; J. R. Faber, Denver; M. B. Bull, St. Paul; Minn.; S. P. Peterson, Oakland; T. H. Mulvey, Lincoln, are at the Canfield.

James K. Chambers, for some time assistant ticket agent for the Union Pacific at the depot, has been promoted and is now in charge of the business. J. H. Maynard, who was also assistant at the transfer depot, has been accorded like promotion. Mr. Joseph Bell, who for twelve years has filled both positions, now retires for a needed rest.

W. E. Smith, St. Paul; P. A. Bonett, Wausau; W. G. Stevenson, Nebraska City; John E. Griffith and wife, Hastings; A. J. Leach, Oskaloa; G. M. Lodge and daughter, Wayne; Miss H. Grubert and Miss A. Burn, Grand Island; P. Hamlin, Orleans, and S. Christy, Silver City, Neb., are at the Metropolitan.

T. T. O'Connor quietly left his desk on leave last Saturday, and for a time lingered in the city, but he failed to get off unseen. When he returns from his New York visit to Miss O'Connor that is, and brings with him Mrs. O'Connor that will be, the U. P. folks will know why he was so shy about it. Congratulations, T. T.!

SARATOGA NOTES. The Saratoga "Band of Hope" will hold their meeting at Mr. McKaty's this evening.

The attendance at our Sabbath school last Sunday was very large, and hand-some cards were distributed. Rev. Geo. Felton, by his cheerful and constant attendance, and his great popularity among the young people of our place, has brought the Sunday school up to a high standard, both in regard to membership and interest.

Mrs. Patrick and Miss Jennie returned yesterday from Blair, where they have been making a short visit.

A lively time was had at the Saratoga school election last night. Mr. W. H. Lawton was elected moderator, which office he has held for a year to the entire satisfaction of the greater part of the district. Mr. McKenzie, Sr., Mr. John I. Redick, and Mr. D. J. Rustin were the orators of the occasion. Mr. Lawton has proved himself a hard man to beat, as the opposition were out in full force, and could give no reason why he should not be endorsed.

A JOLLY PARTY.

L. L. Smith's Employees Attend the Theatre in a Body.

No merchant in this city has a more pleasant and accommodating lot of employees than has L. L. Smith, the Farmington street dry goods merchant. Mr. Smith is well aware of this fact and fully appreciates the same. As a slight token of his appreciation of their services, Mr. Smith, Monday night, gave all of his employees a night at the theatre. He purchased the entire section "H" in Boyd's opera house, and every seat was filled by the attaches of the mammoth dry goods store.

As they sat looking out upon the stage and auditorium it was a party of which any man might well feel proud. A fairer and more genteel looking lot of employees cannot be found in any establishment in the city. The gentlemanly and generous employer, Mr. Smith, occupied an end seat in the first row of the section, and on his right sat his general manager, Mr. F. C. Moses, who, although a comparative stranger here, is fast becoming popular with the trade of this city. Next to Mr. Moses sat Mr. Fred Fuller, the cashier of the house, after which came the army of employees.

To say that all enjoyed themselves does not half express it, for how could it be otherwise under such favorable circumstances? The play, with that prince of comedians, John T. Raymond, in the title role, was all that could be desired, and everything combined to make the evening one long to be remembered by both employer and employees.

It is decidedly refreshing to see such marks of friendship between an employer and his help, and it cannot but prove very beneficial to all concerned. And why should not such feelings exist? We are only here in this world on a visit, and it is better to have everything pleasant as we drift along through this vale of joys and sorrows, (principally sorrows.) It may not seem like anything of moment to the casual observer, but while there is great pleasure in receiving favors, there is vastly more pleasure in extending them, and if more employees would follow the excellent example set by Mr. Smith they would find that they would not only be greatly enriched by the love and esteem of their employer, but that it is also appreciated by the public at large and that golden fruit would be gathered into their coffers, and peace and prosperity would follow them through life and when death claimed them there would be no regret, for their memory would remain bright through almost endless years.

BROWNE--ROBBINS.

Two Happy Hearts United Yesterday Morning.

An event occurred at Trinity cathedral yesterday of more than ordinary importance to Mr. Graham P. Browne and Miss Carrie D. Robbins, of this city; it was the marriage of the two young people. Mr. Browne has grown up in this city, and though quite young has amassed considerable wealth thus early in life, clearly indicating that in the not distant future he will be one of Omaha's rich and influential citizens. His career is quite out of the ordinary run. Four or five years ago he bought a small flock of fine-bred chickens. With care and judgment he added to them until as a property they became productive of a good income. At fairs and exhibitions in this city and state he has always carried off the principal prizes. He also raises fine cattle. Altogether he is more than an ordinary young man, and is the son of Col. Will Browne of the government headquarters. The bride is a well-known Omaha young lady, whose many good qualities recommended her to Mr. Browne's attention. The bride and groom left on the overland train for Denver, Salt Lake, San Francisco and other California points.

Y. M. C. A. Notes.

Thursday evening at 8 o'clock young men's meeting. Friday evening at 8 o'clock, choral club, singing from Gospel Hymns No. 4. Both gentlemen and ladies attend. A pleasant social is held in connection with each meeting.

Saturday evening, strangers' meeting. This is quite a novel meeting, people gather from all over the country. If you are a stranger and can only remain for a few minutes, you are invited.

Sunday at 9:15 a. m., Bible class for young men. Sunday at 1 p. m., jail service at the county jail.

Sunday forenoon at 4 o'clock, gospel meeting will be held by E. O. McClure. Good music and short talks. Board of directors meets on Friday night.

The monthly business meeting will be held on next Monday evening. The "senate" meets next Tuesday at 8 o'clock. Let all the senators be liberal. The visitors' gallery will be in readiness so that a few visitors are invited.

Freight Notes.

U. P. receipts yesterday were: Carloads of corn, 5; coal, 28; merchandise, 23; ore, 1; bullion, 5; flour, 1; potatoes, 1; oats, 2; cement, 1; sugar, 2; lath, 1; oil, 1; horses, 1; wagons, 1; implements, 1; lard, 1; lumber, 57; meat, 1; coke, 4; nails, 1; beds, 1; posts, 5; lemons, 1; flaxseed, 1.

U. P. forwarded yesterday carloads of merchandise, 50; corn, 30; wire, 1; oil, 1; hogs, 1; cattle, 1; eggs, 1; implements, 1; household goods, 1; lumber, 31; coal, 2; salt, 2; lime, 1 canned goods, 1 and sugar, 1.

Missouri Pacific forwarded: Beds, 1; barrels, 2; lead, 1; flaxseed, 1. Mr. P. received: Merchandise, 1; barrels, 2; coal, 1; carriages, 1; implements, 1; oranges, 1; lumber, 1; lime, 1; sugar 1 and flaxseed 1.

Amusement Notes. "Col. Mulberry Sellers" appeared Monday night at the opera house and held sweet and mirthful communion with a large audience, through the medium of the veteran comedian, John F. Raymond.

There is something so refreshing about Raymond's humor, something so simple, yet so masterly, that his powers to please assert themselves with undiminished force from beginning to end. From the moment that the colonel stepped forth to tell confidingly of the "millions in it"--his scheme of boundless wealth--to the last corset destroying scene when he appeared as witness in the murder trial--the audience was a-roar.

Mr. Raymond's support was very good. Miss Stella Boniface moved through the part of "Laura Hawkins" in a manner especially worthy of praise.

A Crazy Man.

Union Pacific officials received word Monday night of a strange occurrence. Kearney. As the overland train was entering that town night before last a 3 1/2 Francisco passenger named Gottlieb Cook jumped from the train and ran north from the track as fast as he could. Yesterday he was found in an almost nude condition by some farmers sixteen miles north of Kearney. He is crazy and the authorities are unable to obtain information from him concerning his friends or wishes. The sheriff holds him in custody.

The Canadian Americans.

Monday evening in St. George's hall, there was a social entertainment given by the Canadian Americans, which was largely attended and a pronounced success in every particular. The following excellent programme was rendered:

Mrs. Emma Gordon, a song; Master and Miss Van Camp, children, piano duet; Ed. Howell, song; Miss Lena Kelley, piano solo; Miss Ida Gibson, song; A. W. Ford, recitation; Miss Emma Howell, song; D. D. McDonald and Miss Emma Louise Nast, piano and violin duet; Miss Lulu Cramer, song; Glee club, quartette, song; Prof. Walther, piano solo.

E. A. O'Kinberg, Loup City; George Marks, Hastings; C. E. Benar, Omaha; J. D. Lowell, Omaha; W. H. Williams and wife, Norfolk; Mrs. Cecelia B. Wells, Columbus; G. W. E. Dorsey, Fremont; T. H. Elmer, Grand Island; S. Walker, Pao de Norte; W. H. Geist, West Point; L. F. Hilton and A. E. Pierce, Blair, are registered at the Millard.

The Joliet Quarry Trouble.

CHICAGO, April 7.--The Journal's Joliet (Ill.) special says: "No attempt was made this morning to put men at work in the quarries. Strikers 3,000 strong, armed with revolvers, prepared to resist all attacks. They are watching the quarry and declare they will not resort to arms unless fired upon. Owners of the quarries have telegraphed the governor that the sheriff has failed to do his duty. Troops have not yet been ordered out, but the adjacent general is expected here to-day to look over the field."

REPORTS OF GOVERNMENT CHEMISTS

As to Purity and Wholesomeness of the Royal Baking Powder.

I have tested a package of Royal Baking Powder, which I purchased in the open market, and find it composed of pure and wholesome ingredients. It is a cream of tartar powder of a high degree of merit, and does not contain either alum, or phosphates, or other injurious substances. E. G. LOVE, Ph.D.

It is a scientific fact that the Royal Baking Powder is absolutely pure. H. A. MOTT, Ph.D.

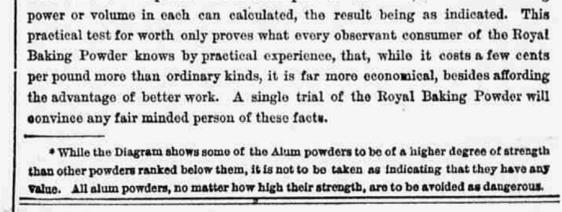

The Royal Baking Powder has been used in my family for many years, and these practical tests, as well as the chemical tests to which I have submitted it, have proved it perfectly healthful, of uniform, excellent quality, and free from any deleterious substance. W. M. McMURTRY, E.M., Ph.D.

I have examined a package of Royal Baking Powder, purchased by myself in the market. I find it entirely free from alum, terra alba, or other injurious substance. HENRY MORTON, Ph.D., President of Stevens Institute of Technology.

No other article of human food has ever received such high, emphatic, and universal endorsement from eminent chemists, physicians, scientists, and boards of health all over the world.

NOTE--The above DIAGRAM illustrates the comparative worth of various Baking Powders as shown by the chemical analyses and experiments made by Prof. Schedler. A pound can of each powder was taken, the total leavening power or volume in each as calculated, the result being as indicated. This practical test for worth only proves what every observant consumer of the Royal Baking Powder knows by practical experience, that, while it costs a few cents per pound more than ordinary kinds, it is far more economical, besides affording the advantage of better work. A single trial of the Royal Baking Powder will convince any fair minded person of these facts.

* While the Diagram shows some of the Alum powders to be of a higher degree of strength than other powders ranked below them, it is not to be taken as indicating that they have any value. All alum powders, no matter how high their strength, are to be avoided as dangerous.
